

■ Why take this course?

- Learn how concepts such as constitutions, legal systems, executives, legislatures, nationalism and national identity, foreign policy, political parties, elections, and individual freedoms differ across these three countries, as well as how they compare to the US

■ Who should take this course?

- Anyone interested in comparing constitutions, law, and legal systems across these three countries and in comparison to the US
- Students desiring to better understand how post-Soviet states have made different choices relating to their governments or how Russia continues to influence politics in post-Soviet states
- Anyone who wants to examine how history, religion, language, and literature have shaped unique national identities for each of these countries

Visit your school's Study Abroad website for more details about cost, deadlines, and applying!

Questions about the course? Contact Dr. Kemp (kwkemp@stthomas.edu) or Dr. Winters (wint4786@stthomas.edu)

Questions about the course? Contact Dr. Kemp (kwkemp@stthomas.edu) or Dr. Winters (wint4786@stthomas.edu)

J-TERM 2017: COMPARATIVE POLITICS OF EUROPE (POLAND, BELARUS, & LITHUANIA)

